Instruction – Digital (direct debit) authorisation

You are about to issue a digital payment authorisation via Studielink. Before you start, you should read some important information below, which is followed by a step-by-step instruction to issue an authorisation.

What is the difference between a digital authorisation and a digital direct debit authorization?
A digital authorisation is issued by entering your payment details via Studielink. By doing this, you give your educational institution permission via Studielink to debit the tuition fees from your bank account. If you issue a digital direct debit authorisation, you give the educational institution permission via your bank’s transaction screen to debit the tuition fees from your bank account. The issuing of a digital direct debit authorisation works in the same way as iDEAL (an electronic payment system via internet). After you have selected your bank in Studielink you will be forwarded to your bank’s online banking environment where you can enter the requested details. After that, you will return to the Studielink site. A digital direct debit authorisation is not supported by every bank in the Netherlands. In addition, the educational institution must also support the use of the digital direct debit authorisation.

How do I see the difference between a digital authorisation and a digital direct debit authorisation in Studielink?
At step 3 (or step 4 if someone else is paying the tuition fees) you have to select your bank. If a digital direct debit authorisation-icon appears, along with additional information, then you know you are about to issue a digital direct debit authorisation in your bank’s online banking environment. If this icon does not appear and you have to enter your bank account number in Studielink, then you are about to issue a digital authorisation via Studielink.

Payment via a digital authorisation is possible if:
- You are aged 18 or older.
- Your bank is located in the SEPA area. Here you can find out which countries in addition to the Netherlands are part of the SEPA area.

If you are not (yet) 18, you can opt to have someone else pay on your behalf. This person must also have an account at a bank located in the SEPA area.

If the bank of the person who is paying the tuition fees is not located in the SEPA area, then you should choose ‘Other payment method’ at Step 1: Payment method. See also our step-by-step instruction Other method of payment.

Payment via a digital direct debit authorisation is possible if:
- You are aged 18 or older.
- Your educational institution has activated this payment method.
- Your bank and that of the educational institution support the digital direct debit authorisation. You can find out which banks support digital direct debit authorisation here: www.currence.nl (under Products > Emandates licencees).

If you are not (yet) 18, you can opt to have someone else pay on your behalf. This person must also have an account at a bank that supports digital direct debit authorisation.

Step-by-step instruction

Are you a student and will you pay yourself with a digital (direct debit) authorisation? Follow these steps: Digital (direct debit) authorisation - If you are going to pay yourself

Will someone else pay on behalf of the student with a digital (direct debit) authorisation? Follow these steps: Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If someone else pays
Instruction – Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If you are going to pay yourself

Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If you are going to pay yourself

➔ Step 1: Log into your Studielink account and click <Enter payment details> on top of the page or below the To do under the right study programme. This is only possible after you have submitted an enrolment application for a study programme and the educational institution has made the option for entering payment details available.
Instruction – Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If you are going to pay yourself

➔ Step 2: You will be directed to the tab `<Payment>`. Here you can see an overview of all educational institutions at which you have submitted an enrolment application. Click the button `<Enter payment details>` of the educational institution to which you want to make your payment.
Instruction - Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If you are going to pay yourself

➔ Step 3: State that you will pay the tuition fees yourself (<Me>) and choose payment method <Digital authorisation>. Here you also choose whether you want to pay in instalments or in one go. A bit lower on the screen additional information about digital authorisation and paying in multiple instalments or in one go is shown. On the right side of the screen you can find an overview with the details of the payment. Information about the payment will be gradually added with every step.
Instruction – Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If you are going to pay yourself

➔ Step 4: Check the details you have entered and choose <Next step>.

➔ Step 5: You then select your bank in the <Bank> field. If your bank is not listed in this field, you select <I have an account with another Dutch bank>. If your bank is not located in the Netherlands but in another country within the SEPA area, you select the option <I have an account with a non-Dutch bank> and then select the country in which your bank is based.
Instruction – Digital (direct debit) authorisation – If you are going to pay yourself

If your bank (and the educational institution’s bank) does not support a digital direct debit authorisation, or if your bank is located in another country within the SEPA area, you are going to issue a digital authorisation and you can then proceed to ➔ Step 6.

If your bank (and the educational institution’s bank) supports digital direct debit authorisation, you will see an icon 🖼 along with the text ‘You can find more information about this payment method at www.incassomachtigen.nl.’ You can now proceed to ➔ Step 9.

➔ Step 6: Enter the bank details and tick the boxes next to <Authorisations>. Then, click <Issue digital authorisation>.

Please note: What this screen looks like may differ, depending on how the educational institution in question has set up the payment process

➔ If the entered payment details remain valid at the educational institution for multiple academic years, the screen at Step 6A is shown.

➔ If the entered payment details are only valid for one academic year, the screen at Step 6B is shown.

➤ Step 6A: Payment with payment details that are valid for multiple academic years.

Enter payment details

Step 3: Payment

In this step, fill in the bank details for a digital authorisation.

- Select the bank of the account holder:
  - I have an account with another Dutch bank

- Name account holder:
  - Tessa Testperson

- Account number (IBAN):
  - [Blank]

With this authorisation, you grant permission to Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam to process a single or recurrent direct-debit order to your bank to debit the above amount from your account and your bank permission to make a payment (in instalments if required) for this amount in accordance with the direct-debit order from Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam. If you do not agree with this payment, you can have it paid back. To arrange this, you must contact your bank within 8 weeks of the transaction. Ask your bank about the conditions.

Validity of payment details

These details will also be used for Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam in future academic years. You can change these payment details at any time.

You will find the amount of the tuition fees and the collection date under the ‘Payment’ tab in your Studielink account as soon as this information becomes available.

Authorisations

- I hereby declare that the entered details are correct and I am aware that by confirming the digital authorisation, I will enter into an irrevocable commitment to pay the educational institution. The digital direct debit authorisation can only be revoked by cancelling the enrolment request before the start of the academic year. A request for termination of enrolment may be submitted after the start of the academic year; there are statutory periods for this as well as financial consequences.

- I have read and accept the conditions set out in the institution’s regulations on Enrolment and Tuition Fees. The educational institution may adjust the amount of the authorisation to reflect any changes in tuition fees arising from changes to legislation or changes in the enrolment(s) or enrolment history. You will be informed of this by email.

Payment link for entering payment details

Dear [Name],

You have stated in Studielink that someone else will be paying the tuition fees. Please send this email with the payment link to the person who will be paying the tuition fees, to enable them to enter the payment details.

Payment link

If the link does not open, copy and paste the following line into the address bar of the web browser:

https://example.com/payments/view/123456

The educational institution may change the amount of the tuition fees. See the Studielink Q&A for more information about this.

Validity of payment details

These details will also be used for this specific educational institution in future academic years. You can change these payment details at any time.

Changing payment details

If you are a student, go to the ‘Payment’ tab in your Studielink account and click on the ‘Changing payment details’ button for the educational institution in question.

If you are paying on behalf of a student, please use the payment link above to change the payment details; this link will remain valid.

Questions?

If so, please contact your educational institution.

Yours sincerely,

Studielink
